EVENT LOOKBOOK

Welcome to our 11th Anniversary Celebration & Parade

The Missouri City Juneteenth Celebration Foundation (MCJCF), a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization, the largest of its kind in the nation, now in our eleventh (11th) year, announces our weeklong line-up of Texas-Sized family related events and activities.

The foundation's planned events and activities are set to occur beginning June 6th through the 15th with most events free and open to the general public. Thousands of attendees and participants are again expected to join in the citywide celebration of Juneteenth in Missouri City.

"Last year was our biggest and best celebration to date... we anticipate this year's celebration will be even better," boast's Don Smith, MCJCF founder and current Missouri City, TX, City Councilman. "Our goal remains to bring positive attention to African – Americans while celebrating the Emancipation Proclamation."

"Providing scholarships to deserving students is a high objective!"
